

Podge Kelly, F.I.P.F., E.F.I.A.P., L.S.W.P.P.

Podge lives in Dublin, Ireland.

He has been taking photographs for the past 38 years.

He judges and lectures all over Ireland (North and South) and Internationally.

Podge, has lectured and taught on behalf of Agfa Ireland, Canon, Polaroid, and was Fuji Film (Ireland) only contracted Photographer for 4 and half years and worked with Sony UK/Ireland.

Photovalue / 3XMSolutions and for The Societies (SWPP).

Teaches Photography to all levels of photographers / Amateurs, Semi Pro & Professionals lectures on Lighting Photoshop/ plugins such as Nik

Podge has received many awards in Irish exhibitions and his work has been accepted in numerous International Salons e.g. Argentina, Austria, China, Estonia, Hong Kong, Iran, Italy and Scotland, both as an individual and as part of the work representing Ireland in the Federation Internationale de L'Art Photographique biennials. To date over 70 pieces of his work have been accepted in salons around the World. Podge has won The SWPP International Monochrome competition and the Maltese Open Print Competition. Twice Podge holds Three distinctions.

His First is the: Fellowship of the Irish Photographic Federation (F.I.P.F.).

His Second is: Excellence of the Federation Internationale de L'Art Photographique (E.F.I.A.P.)

His Third is: Licentiate of the Society of Wedding and Portrait Photographers (L.S.W.P.P.)

Podge created, wrote and presented 40 half hour TV shows on photography which were shown on RTE, the National Irish TV station over the last number of years. They are these were the first ever done in Ireland.

“What A Picture” - “What a Digital Picture” and “In Focus”

Podge also produced 5 x two hour videos and 1 x three and a half hour DVD from these shows.