

Tom Lee

Born in 1958 - Educated and raised on the Wirral in Cheshire. In his early years studied to become an Architect, Civil and Structural Engineer before enjoying a noted career in the world of photography.

Tom is a UK based international portrait and fine art photographer recognised for his expertise in digital image capture and has accumulated multiple international awards in recent years.

Using the latest equipment to produce contemporary works of art, he provides heirlooms that sit equally on the walls of a private home or commercial enterprise.

Tom has a global reputation having sat on several International judging panels and given numerous seminars in the UK and abroad. He was awarded Fellowship of the SWPP (Society of Wedding and Portrait Photographers) in 2002 and made Vice President in the same year. Awarded for his outstanding contribution to the photographic industry in 2007 and also became a Craftsman of the Society. Tom gained Fellowship of the MIPP (Maltese Institution of Professional Photography) in 2012. Installed as a Master Photographer of the Societies in 2013. Tom is also a member of GPA (Guild of Photographic Artists) and WPPI (Wedding and Portrait Photographers International). He is now a member of the prestigious Epson Digigraphie Authorised Artist programme.
